Christmas Children's Party 2012

On Sunday, December 16th, the company organized the annual Children's Christmas Party.

Santa-Claus greeted the arriving guests. Then, they had fun in a huge playground. Children tested their abilities in activities like archery, gladiator battles and air hockey. Smaller kids enjoyed a mini luna-park, complete with carousel, a mini-train and inflatable castles. Everybody was mesmerised by the magic puppet-show "Nutcracker" which was followed by dancing with elves and fairies. The event also included face painting, tatoos and arts and crafts. Family photos were taken in the Photobooth. This annual gathering gave once again the chance for the employees of ELVAL and their families to get together in an informal and fun environment.
