New Year's Pie Cutting 2013

On Thursday, January 17th 2013, the traditional celebration for the New Year and Pie Cutting was organized in the company's facilities at Oinofyta. The factory workers, office staff and executives participated in the event as well as Members of the Board of Directors. Mr. Lambros Varouchas, ELVAL's General Manager, made a brief review of last year, the progress of the company and the targets for 2013. Management wished the employees and their families health and happiness for the New Year.

The company honored during the event the employees that completed 25 years of service to ELVAL within the last year, following the tradition that was started last year.

Also, the employees were honored that had the two best ideas in 2012. Ideas that were submitted within the "New Ideas and Proposals Scheme" and have contributed to improving ELVAL's operation. This was done in order to emphasize the important positioning among the company's values of innovation and the continuous quest for new ideas and proposals, a determining factor of our growth.
