Christmas Children's Party 2013

On Sunday, December 15th, the company organized the annual Children's Christmas Party.

Santa-Claus and elves greeted the arriving guests. Then, they had fun in a huge playground. Children tested their abilities in activities like archery, gladiator battles and air hockey. Smaller kids enjoyed a mini luna-park, complete with carousel, a mini-train and inflatable castles. Everybody was mesmerised by the theatrical play "Christmas on Dragon Island" which was followed by dancing with children's and modern music. The event also included face painting by goblins, tatoos and arts and crafts. This annual gathering gave once again the chance for the employees of ELVAL and their families to get together in an informal and fun environment.
