New Year's Pie Cutting 2014

On Wednesday, February 19th, the traditional celebration for the New Year and Pie Cutting took place in the company's facilities at Oinofyta. Plant workers, office staff and executives participated in the event, as well as members of the Board of Directors. Mr. Lambros Varouchas, ELVAL's General Manager, made a brief review of last year, the progress of the company and the targets for 2014. Management wished the employees and their families health and happiness for the New Year.

Following a corporate tradition, the company honoured during the event, those employees that completed 25 years of service in ELVAL, in the past year.

Also, in order to emphasize the important positioning among the company's values of innovation, the continuous quest for new ideas and proposals as well as safety and health in the workplace, a special award was given to those employees that had the two best ideas submitted to the "New Ideas and Proposals Scheme" and the best improvement proposal for Safety & Health for 2013.
