New Year's Pie Cutting 2017

On Thursday, January 19th, the traditional celebration for the New Year and Pie Cutting took place in the company's facilities at Oinofyta. Plant workers, office staff and executives participated in the event, as well as members of Elval's Board of Directors. Mr. Lambros Varouchas, Chairman and General Manager, made a brief review of last year, the progress of the company and the targets for 2017. Management wished the employees and their families health and happiness for the New Year.

Following the corporate tradition, the company honoured during the event, those employees that completed 25 years of service in Elval, in the past year.

Also, in order to emphasize the important positioning among the company's values of safety and health in the workplace, a special award was given to those employees that had the best ideas for improvements in the safety and health sector.
