ELVAL to participate in the ALUEXPO 2013 Exhibition

ELVAL announces its participation in the ALUEXPO exhibition to be held from 3 to 6 of October 2013 at the "ISTANBUL EXPO CENTER" Trade Center in Turkey. ELVAL will be present along with its subsidiary SYMETAL and local representative BASE METALS.

ALUEXPO 2013 will gather all the suppliers, producers and buyers of the aluminium sector under the same roof and will be an important attraction for local and international visitors. It is, therefore, a great opportunity to highlight ELVAL's range of services (that include Research and Development, Technical Support and Consultancy) addressing its extended product range which includes:

- Plain sheets, coils and circles
- Coated sheets and coils for architectural applications
- Strips for heat exchangers
- Magnesium alloy sheets for marine, automotive and rail applications
- Tread plates and bright sheets
- Sheets and strips for food, beverage and food cans
- ETALBOND – ELVAL ENF

Visit ELVAL at the stand of BASE METAL: Hall 10-B140
