Elval participates in ALUMINIUM USA Exhibition

“Elval showcases its wide portfolio of aluminium products and solutions at Aluminium USA trade fair which will be held on 12-13 September 2019 in Nashville”

ALUMINIUM USA is a leading industry event that covers the entire aluminium value chain and brings industry professionals together every two years. It is a 2-day trade event, which takes place in USA for the third time, from 12 until 13 of September 2019 at Nashville, Tennessee’s Music City Center.

The exhibition offers an opportunity to approximately 200 exhibitors and 2,500 visitors to come together for face-to-face meetings and discuss new products, solutions and technologies including raw materials, semi-finished and finished products, surface treatment and machinery as well as plant equipment for aluminum processing and manufacturing.

Elval’s professionals are looking forward to meeting existing and potential customers, partners, suppliers and journalists in Booth #618 and provide extensive information about Elval’s premium, innovative aluminium portfolio for the packaging, transportation, architectural and industrial markets.
